

Louise STEWART

Louise qualified as a Registered Intermediary in 2011 and since that time she has worked as an Intermediary with witnesses, defendants and with parties in family cases. As a Speech and language therapist her particular interest was in adult acquired disorders (e.g. stroke, traumatic brain injury, dementia etc). Louise worked as a criminal defence solicitor for nearly twenty years which has given her a good understanding of the Criminal justice system. As an Intermediary she is able to take referrals for cases in the Family court and in Criminal courts. Louise can take referrals for • Adult and paediatric acquired disorders including e.g., brain injury, aphasia, dysarthria, fluency. • Adult and paediatric learning difficulties including ASD., dyspraxia, dyslexia, ADHD, OCD and associated co-morbidities such as depression and anxiety. • Dementia • Hearing impairment. She is happy to work flexibly as required in terms of time and will always do her best to respond promptly and helpfully.
