

Nina PIKE

Nina qualified in Secondary Teaching (BA honours with QTS) in 2004. From 17 years of teaching, she has a vast experience of working with children and adolescents with a range of Special Educational Needs and Disabilities. These include learning disabilities such as autism, ADHD, processing issues, anxiety, physical disabilities, down syndrome and emotional or behavioural problems. She has also been working as a Registered Intermediary for witnesses since 2019, covering over 100 cases working with children under 18 with a range of communication needs arising from their age or mild to moderate learning disabilities. She joined TIC working in family and criminal courts in May 2021 (and became full time July 2021) having completed the extended skills training course on working with defendants in March 2021, and completed the family courts training January 2022. She attends regular CPD events provided by both the co-operative and Intermediaries for Justice to inform my practice.
